M., on the premises, proceed to sell at public auction the property conveyed in the above mentioned deed of trust, lying and being in the city of Richmond, Virginia, at the southeast corner of Leigh and Kinney Streets, fronting on the southern line of Leigh Street 100 feet, and extending back southwardly from said front line to the western line of Kinney Street and a line parallel therewith, 220 feet to an alley 14 feet wide.
The improvements consist of a large detached well built comparatively new four-story brick dwelling, with all the modern conveniences, and all conveniences usually found in such buildings. This is a fine location, as Leigh Street is enhancing rapidly.
The price is sufficient to pay all costs of sale, taxes to day of sale, and a note of $1,500 and interest thereon from January 15, 1911, and the balance announced at hour of sale.
